SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of : three (3) years to run concurrently with the supervised release in the Northern District of Texas (Docket No.: 5:11CR049-01-C).

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: HERSCHEL J. BREIG SR.
CASE NUMBER: 4:15CR40020-002

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: HERSCHEL J. BREIG SR.
CASE NUMBER: 4:15CR40020-002

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, and/or vehicle(s) to a search which may be conducted at the request of the United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time, and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of a violation of any conditions of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation.
2. Pursuant to the Mandatory Victims Restitution Act of 1996, the defendant shall immediately pay restitution in the amount of $6,172,134.16, payable to the United States District Clerk, 30 South 6th Street, Room 1038, Fort Smith, Arkansas, 72901-2437, for disbursement to: Internal Revenue Service-RACS, Attn: Mail Stop 6261, Restitution, 333 West Pershing Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri, 64108. Restitution shall be paid joint and several with James R. Cheek (Docket No.: 4:15CR40020-001).
3. If upon commencement of the term of supervised release any part of the restitution remains unpaid, the defendant shall make payments on such unpaid balance beginning 60 days after his release from custody at the rate of not less than $100.00 per month or 15% of the defendant's net monthly earnings, whichever is greater. The interest requirement is waived. The entire balance is to be paid in full no later than one month prior to the end of the period of supervised release.
4. The defendant shall not incur any new debt nor establish any bank or credit accounts unless receiving prior approval from United States Probation Officer, and shall make any information concerning his financial status available to the probation officer upon request. The defendant shall allow and give consent to the probation officer to make contact with any of the defendant's financial institutions to confirm that the defendant is complying with this special condition.
5. The defendant shall not be employed in any capacity or position that would require him to hold, possess, or control money or assets that belong to other people. He shall make known to the probation officer the nature of his employment and the daily tasks he is required to perform in his employment. He shall allow the probation officer to verify compliance with this special condition.
